The MAAC

On August 14, 2002, the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) voted the admittance of the VMI lacrosse program as an associate member of the conference, effective immediately.

VMI became the ninth lacrosse-playing member of the conference, which is the largest in NCAA Division I lacrosse. The MAAC has sponsored men's lacrosse since June of 1995. The 2002 season marked the first season that the conference champion earned an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament as Manhattan College was crowned the inaugural champion. The Jaspers won a four-team postseason conference tournament to take the title. Mount St. Mary's captured the title in 2003. The 2004 MAAC Championships will be held on May 7 & 9 in Buffalo, N.Y., on the campus of Canisius College.

The other schools in the lacrosse league are Canisius College, Marist College, Mount St. Mary's College, Providence College, St. Joseph's University, Siena College and Wagner College. Four of those schools (Mt. St. Mary's, Providence, St. Joseph's and Wagner) are also associate members of the conference for lacrosse.

In VMI's first season (2003), the Keydets posted a 4-4 conference record, losing three games by one goal each. VMI finished one game out of qualification for the MAAC Championships.

The 2003 VMI lacrosse season was the first in the program's 20-year history in which it was affiliated with a conference. The man behind the move to the Metro Atlantic Conference is the same man who has guided the program for the past 18 years, Doug Bartlett.

"I've waited 18 years to find a home for this program and to give it something to play for (a conference championship)," said Bartlett after his team defeated Canisius, 13-9 in its first-ever conference game. "Now VMI lacrosse is reaping the benefits of being a member of a conference." It was that moment that Bartlett knew his program was headed in a new and more promising direction.

With 107 victories at VMI to his credit, Bartlett remains the architect of the Keydet lacrosse program. In his 18 seasons, Bartlett has built his program from the ground up.

In 1986, Bartlett took over a team that began varsity play in 1983 and immediately brought respectability to the program. Six of his first seven seasons at the helm of VMI resulted in non-losing seasons and five of those were winning seasons.

In the past 18 seasons, Bartlett's accomplishments with the Keydet lacrosse program are unprecedented. His 1992 team was ranked in the Top 25 lacrosse poll, making it only the fourth team in VMI history to be ranked in a national poll and his 1995 edition received votes as well.

Bartlett's coaching excellence and accomplishments at VMI have been repeatedly recognized by his peers. He has twice been selected as a coach for the South team in the North/South Lacrosse Classic – for the first time in 1992, and again in 1998 when he joined Maryland coach Dick Edell on the South sidelines. Bartlett has been a featured speaker at the Southeastern Region Lacrosse Coaches Clinic and also has been a keynote speaker at the United States Lacrosse Association national convention. He currently serves as chairman of the Division I North / South Lacrosse game.

Bartlett has developed a reputation as a coach who pushes his players to excel on the field and pushes himself in the recruiting wars to obtain top notch lacrosse players for his program and for VMI.

Bartlett is a 1970 graduate of SUNY-Geneseo, where he started on the lacrosse team for four years. He previously coached at Radford University, first as an assistant and then as head coach.

He is the father of three daughters – Jessie (15), Kelsey (12) and Maiah (9).

Ass. Head Coach Mic Grant & Athletic Trainer Chris Smith

Mic Grant

- Associate Head Coach
- Defensive Coordinator
- Seventh Season
- Hampden-Sydney '92

Every great coach needs a right-hand man to do his "behind-the-scenes work." Doug Bartlett's right-hand man is Mic Grant, who begins his seventh season as VMI's defensive coordinator and his third with the title of associate head coach.

In the summer of 2001, Grant became the recruiting coordinator and involved more directly with the team's budgetary expenditures.

Since then, VMI has brought in two of the biggest and most talented recruiting classes in the history of the program.

"I think that this promotion and additional responsibilities exemplifies Mic's commitment of positive contributions to the program," said Bartlett. "This is certainly a statement of appreciation for what Mic has done for VMI lacrosse."

In his six years at VMI, Grant has taken the goals against average from 13.27 in his first year to 9.00 in 2000 and 10.79 in 2003. "He has made a phenomenal improvement in our defense," said Bartlett. "The one-on-one defense and team concept has improved dramatically."

Grant came to VMI from Hampden-Sydney College, where he was an assistant coach for five seasons under Head Coach Ray Rostan. While at H-SC, Grant worked with the Tiger defensemen, monitored academic progress, scouted opponents, and assisted with recruiting. During that period, six of his players achieved All-America distinction.

While at Hampden-Sydney, Grant also worked with the Tiger soccer program, and coordinated the summer soccer camp. Grant also has extensive experience as a lacrosse camp clinician, working at camps in Baltimore and Charlottesville, as well as in the Hampden-Sydney area.

As a player, Grant was a two-year lacrosse letterwinner at Hampden-Sydney, where he captained the squad during 1991, his senior season. He played his first two seasons of collegiate lacrosse at Ohio Wesleyan University, where he was a member of the Battling Bishops' 1988 and 1989 NCAA Division III National Finalist teams. He played in the Division III North/South Senior All-Star game in 1991.

A native of Charlottesville, Va., Grant was a First team, All-American, and First team, All-State defenseman at St. Anne's-Belfield School in Charlottesville. As a senior at STAB, he was the men's lacrosse team MVP.

Grant is married to the former Heather Jenkins. The couple resides in Lexington.

Chris Smith, ATC

- Athletic Trainer
- Fourth Season
- Cal State-Chico '98

In the 21-year history of the VMI lacrosse program, only one athletic trainer has worked with the team for four consecutive years. This season, Chris Smith, ATC has become that trainer.

In his first three years with the program, Smith has faced several challenging tasks dealing with "MASH squads" of injuries, but has come through with flying colors in keeping the team as healthy as possible.

In the fall, Smith works with the VMI football program, where he has also done an admirable job under head trainer Lance Fujiwara.

Prior to his arrival at VMI, Smith spent a year at the University of Virginia, where he received his Master's of Education in Athletic Training.

A 1998 graduate of California State University, Chico, Smith received his Bachelor's Degree in Physical Education and played on the football team as an undergraduate. Smith, 28, stayed on at CSU, Chico as a graduate assistant athletic trainer until he passed his certification exam in April of 1999.

Smith is originally from Portsmouth, Va. He is married to the former Theresa Enyeart, who thoroughly enjoys reading the VMI lacrosse media guide as well as the football program on home gamedays. The couple resides in Roanoke.

2004 Keydet Outlook

After falling short of the MAAC Championships last season, the only thing on the minds of the VMI lacrosse team this year is....

Taking Care of Business

The 2003 season was VMI's first in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference. The season started well as the Keydets won their first three league games. VMI then lost four of the next five, with three of those losses coming by just one goal. The 4-4 record left VMI one win away from qualifying for the MAAC Tournament. With last year's frustrations fresh on the minds of the team, the Keydets feel there is some "unfinished business" to take care of in 2004 and have dedicated themselves to doing so.

"If we are going to succeed in the MAAC, we are going to have to win on the road and win close games," said head coach Doug Bartlett. "Our team realizes that. We think of what could have been and it really irritates us."

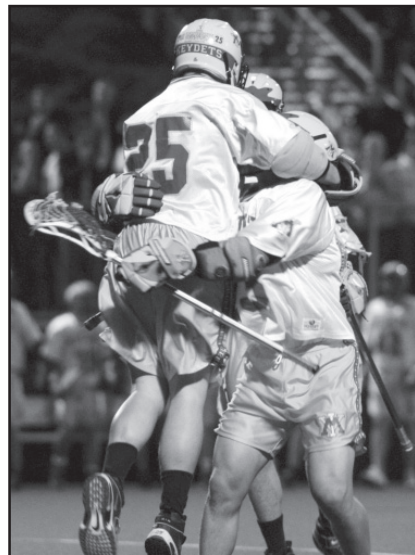

A big part of VMI's 2004 success will hinge on its inexperienced, but talented attack line. With the loss of three of the team's top four scorers from a year ago, Bartlett will be looking for younger players to expand their roles.

After playing two years as an offensive midfielder, junior Gabe McCaig was moved to attack, giving the line some experience. "Gabe has taken to attack like a duck takes to water," said Bartlett. "He's quick, athletic, ambidextrous and goes to the goal hard. Gabe will be our No. 1 scoring option." After scoring 38 points in two years at midfield, the coaching staff feels comfortable that McCaig should enhance those numbers greatly as he takes on a more offensive role.

Sophomore Robert Trimble will also be asked to take a larger role in the offense after scoring 10 points as a freshman. A quick and talented player, Trimble's weakness may be that he is too unselfish. With more than twice as many assists (7) as he had goals (3) last year, the staff would like to see him go to the goal a little bit more.

Fellow sophomore Will Collier was named last season's VMI Freshman of the Year for his 12 goals. "He's the third piece to this offensive puzzle," said Bartlett. "When opposing defenses make mistakes, Will will exploit them." Like McCaig and Trimble, Bartlett is anticipating a larger scoring outburst from Collier.

Bartlett feels pretty confident that if any of his first line attackmen falter, he has great depth to step right in. This leader of that pack is senior Tim Erwin, who is the most experienced of any of Bartlett's offensive players. After spending the fall semester overseas, he will be expected to step right back in and lend his expertise and scoring punch. "He could be the fourth guy in our three-man rotation," said Bartlett.

& Dan Blezer*

2004 Keydet Outlook

The true strength to the 2004 version of VMI lacrosse may be the midfielders. "There's a lot of depth to this midfield unit," said Bartlett. "It is a good blend of youth and experience."

The first line of midfielders is as good of a trio that Bartlett feels he's ever had in 19 years at the Institute. The line starts with junior Erik Rohrmann, who improved himself greatly over the offseason. "He has taken his game and his work ethic to a new level this year," said Bartlett. "Erik is making everybody else on this team better." Rohrmann became the first ever tri-captain to be named by the coaching staff after his impressive fall season.

Erik Rohrmann

Sophomore Tony Cavalero will be this squad's face-off man after sharing the responsibilities with Brian Niven last season. This year, he will take the majority of the face-offs and be what Bartlett hopes to be the ignition of the offense. "Tony's experience last year will help him now," said Bartlett. "This is the year Tony needs to show us what he's got."

It took him until his senior campaign, but Pat Gregory is finally going through a school year in which he has been healthy for the entirety. He is being rewarded with a spot on the starting midfield line. He has improved every year since coming to the Institute and the coaching staff feels that his athleticism has helped him evolve from a defensive midfielder to a more complete midfielder. He has developed an in-depth understanding of the offense and will be ready to go in '04.

Fellow senior Dan Belzer heads up VMI's second line of midfielders. Like Gregory, Belzer has improved every year and will see increased playing time because of it. His tremendous work ethic, desire and passion for the game has allowed Bartlett to refer to him as "possibly the best second line midfielder I've ever coached."

Belzer will be complemented by sophomore David Trimble, whose identical twin brother Robert is on VMI's attack. This version of the "Trimble Double Trouble" is an offensive midfielder who has great accuracy when he releases the ball. He plays with both hands and has improved himself physically and mentally over the last year.

Freshman Steve Long comes out of Drexel Hill, Pa. as a proven midfielder and an athlete that VMI feels will be able to figure into the mix right away. He's an athletic midfielder, who can use either hand. Junior Jeff Rummell also is expected to figure into the second line of midfielders, as well as freshmen Eric Harley and Nick Worek.

Defensive coordinator Mic Grant is excited about his young and talented defensive unit. He feels that a lot of the success for the team this season will depend on how quickly the defense jells as a unit.

This season the Keydets have moved senior tri-captain Will Simmons back to in-close defenseman because they felt comfortable with a freshman at long-stick midfielder. That freshman is Charles Barnes, who has demonstrated maturity beyond his years. As a senior at Marple Newtown (Pa.) High School, Barnes was named the team's defensive MVP. "He keeps pressure on the opposition and is a monster on groundballs," said Grant. "Barnes will be our man at long-stick midfielder."

Grant will feel more comfortable with Simmons at the in-close position, where he excelled earlier in his career. As a four-year starter and three-year captain, Simmons is the clear leader of this defense. He will be counted on to draw the opposition's top offensive threat in most games and the staff has full confidence that he will do the job.

Junior Jay Morgan is in his first year of his tri-captain role and brings a great deal of leadership to the defense. This year, he will be asked to do more than ever before on the defensive end as far as clearing the ball and directing the defense. Grant feels that he is up to those responsibilities. Sophomore Lee Cook has shown a lot of improvement during the fall and will be expected to see increased playing time in 2004. Grant describes Cook as "a hard-nosed one-on-one defender, who understands the defense well."

Cook will battle for the third defenseman position, with sophomore Adrian Cmerek and freshman Curtis Jaques. Cmerek, a linebacker on the football team, showed promise as a freshman and will be counted on once he's caught up to speed on what he missed in the fall. Jaques is an exciting young talent, who plays good position defense and clears the ball well. Freshmen Jason LaCerde and Alex Litz will also compete for playing time.

As far as VMI's last line of defense, the goalkeeper, Grant has a great deal of confidence. Despite not playing a full game in goal, junior Matt Hook has two solid years of experience of backing up Brian Ward, who graduated last year. In 2004, Hook is ready to assume the role of the No. 1 starter. This fall, he established himself as a more confident goalkeeper and has shown his understanding of VMI's defensive concept that he has absorbed over the last two years. His tough mentality will help him be a leader of the defense in 2004. Hook will be backed up by sophomore Kelley DeNeen, who had a good fall and will push Hook during the season. Fellow sophomore Dan Frank returns from a fall semester overseas. The coaching staff is eager to see what he brings to the table.

The Keydet schedule looks similar to last season with the full slate of MAAC action, including trips to Providence, Manhattan, Canisius, and Siena. The non-conference schedule remains tough with a return trip to Duke and first ever trips to Butler and Holy Cross. After coming within one goal of defeating cross-town rival Washington & Lee in the annual Lee-Jackson Classic last year, the Keydets will seek revenge on the Generals in this season.

On the first weekend of May, VMI hopes to be in Buffalo, where Canisius will host the MAAC Championships. To qualify for the tournament, VMI must finish in the top four of the conference, a feat they came oh so close to in 2003. No lacrosse player in red and yellow wants a repeat of last year. In 2004, the Keydets are determined to take care of business.
