Freshman right-hander expected to battle for a mid-week starting spot

High School: Four-year letterwinner...Starting catcher on Great Bridge's 2003 Virginia ABA State Championship team...Also won a regional championship in 2004 at Great Bridge.

Personal: Son of Leslie and Charles Booth... Full name is Kevin Thomas Booth...Major is undecided...Played in the 2004 Commonwealth Games, in the Blue-Grey Classic held at Wake Forest and the Perfect Game events held at UNC and Fort Myers, Fla.

Ikenberry on Booth: "Kevin is a polished receiver with great knowledge of the game. He has tremendous work ethic and I have been with Kevin at the Best in Virginia Camp for several years. He began pitching this fall and has a tremendous future ahead of him. Kevin pitches at 85-88 mph and complements his fastball with a curve ball with great depth.

Kevin takes his catcher's mentality to the mound and comes right at hitters. He comes from one of the top programs in the state, playing for Wiley Lee at Great Bridge and won a state championship in 2003!"

Michael Bowman

#17

Richmond, Va./Deep Run

Freshman, Pitcher

6'1", 170 lbs., Bats Right, Throws Right

Freshman right-hander expected to battle for either the #3 or mid-week starting spot

High School: Three-year letterwinner at Deep Run...Named honorable mention all-district and all-academic...Also lettered two years at quarterback, totaling 1600 yards passing...Named honorable mention all-district in football...Also played basketball.

Personal: Son of Barbara and Thomas Bowman...Full name is Michael Thomas Bowman...Major is engineering...Played in the 2004 Commonwealth Games and for American Legion Posts 244 and 361...Pitched two innings in the 2005 VHSCA East-West All-Star Game with fellow Keydets Matt Edwards and John Phelps.

Ikenberry on Bowman: "Michael to me is one of the top pitchers in the state of Virginia. He has 3 pitches(fastball, curveball, change up) which he commands all for strikes. He is a loose lanky right-hander that throws his fastball 85-88 mph. Michael is a tough competitor who was a quarterback on his high school football team. Michael is a winner that comes from a great baseball background playing for Grant O'Dell at Deep Run and Donnie Phillips for American Legion Post 361. Baseball America rated Michael the number 30 top prospect in the state of Virginia."

Matt Edwards

Midlothian, Va./Midlothian

Freshman, Pitcher/Designated Hitter

Versatile, athletic player that will see time on the mound in the late innings and off the bench, perhaps as a designated hitter

High School: Four-year letterwinner at Midlothian as a shortstop and pitcher...Reached the 2005 VHSL ABA State Playoffs after a runner-up regional finish...Named to the All-Academic Team...Allowed only one run in four innings vs. Mills Godwin in regional play...Went 4-2 as a sophomore varsity pitcher with an ERA under 2.00.

Personal: Son of Teresa and Jonathan Edwards...Full name is Matthew Brett Edwards...Major is Civil Engineering...Was named MVP of the 2005 VHSCA East-West All-Star Game, as he saw time at both shortstop and on the mound... Went 2-for-3 with a walk and a two-run double while pitching 2 1/3 innings with four strikeouts in a game he wasn't scheduled to pitch in.

Ikenberry on Edwards: "Matt is a fastball/slider guy that pitches at 85-87 with 3/4 arm slot that creates movement on his fastball. He can pitch on both sides of the plate and comes right at the hitter. He has a deceptive delivery. Matt reminds me of a young (Keydet saves record-holder) Jeff Demara with his bulldog mentality. Matt played for legendary
