KEYDET HEAD COACH

Jim Reid

Jim Reid became the 29th head football coach in the 115-year gridiron history of the Institute on December 22, 2005. With over 30 years coaching experience, including 15 seasons and 84 victories as a head coach, Reid returned to the Commonwealth as a Division I-AA head coach after directing the University of Richmond football program from 1995 through 2003.

"I am excited that Jim Reid will be our new head football coach," said VMI Athletics Director Donny White. "He is a perfect fit for VMI. We wanted to find a coach who is an outstanding leader with successful head coaching experience. We have found that man in Jim Reid."

"It is an absolute honor and privilege to be selected as the head football coach at Virginia Military Institute," said Reid. "I accept the challenge to elevate the football program to the VMI standard of excellence."

Reid, 55, succeeds Cal McCombs, who served seven seasons as Keydet head coach.

"Coach Reid is a seasoned head coach and proven winner at the I-AA level," said VMI superintendent General J.H. Binford Peay III. "We welcome him to the Institute and the VMI-Lexington family."

A name familiar to VMI football fans while serving as head coach of one of the Institute's long-time in-state rivals, Reid guided Richmond to 48 wins over his nine years as head coach, which ranks third on the school's all-time win list. His UR teams posted three of the top 13 season records, and the only ten-win season in school history. He led Richmond to Atlantic 10 championships and I-AA playoff appearances in 1998 and 2000 and was named conference coach of the year both times. He was also selected Yankee Conference co-coach of the year in his debut season of 1995 when Richmond went 7-3-1 and finished the season ranked 20th in I-AA. In 2000, the Spiders won a school record 10 games, including a victory over Youngstown State in the I-AA playoffs. The 2000 Richmond football team finished the season with a final national ranking of sixth in I-AA.

During Reid's tenure as Richmond head coach, 13 players rose to the ranks of professional football.

Reid left Richmond following the 2003 season to serve as defensive line coach for Syracuse University where he coached for one season. He comes to VMI from Bucknell University where he served as an assistant coach for the 2005 season.

Reid also previously guided the University of Massachusetts football program as head coach from the 1986 through 1991 seasons. He posted a 36-29-2 record over the six seasons as coach of the Minutemen and was the Yankee Conference Coach of the Year in 1988 and 1990. He led UMass to a Yankee Conference co-championship in 1986, and followed with conference titles and I-AA playoff berths in 1988 and 1990.

A 1973 graduate of the University of Maine where he was a three-year starter, Reid began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under Dick McPherson at UMass in 1973, beginning a 19-year coaching association with the school. In 1978, Reid was promoted to defensive coordinator, a post he held until being named UMass head coach in 1986.

Reid moved to Richmond to serve as defensive coordinator in 1992 and held the same post at Boston College in 1994 before being named UR head coach the following season.

Reid and his wife, Judy, have three children: daughter's Meghan and Molly, and son Matt, who served as assistant baseball coach at VMI in 2002.

BOB BODINE

- TULANE '93
- FIRST SEASON
- OFFENSIVE LINE

Bob Bodine begins his first season as assistant coach of the Keydet offensive line after joining the staff in early June.

Bodine has strong ties to the current VMI coaching staff and served with offensive coordinator Brent Davis at Georgia Southern University for six seasons.

While at Georgia Southern from 1997 through 2002, Bodine worked with the offensive line for two seasons, then moved to the defensive line for two more seasons before taking charge of the Eagle outside linebackers in 1999 and wide receivers for 2000 and 2001 and slot backs in 2002.

A two-year starter and three-year letter winner at offensive guard, Bodine earned his B.A. in Psychology at Tulane University in 1993. He earned Tulane's Ben Weiner Inspiration Award for 1993.

Bodine began his coaching career at his alma mater and assisted with the Green Wave offensive line and long snappers over a three season span.

A native, of Hazleton, Pa., Bodine also served as offensive line coach at Jackson State for two years and was slot backs coach for one season at Bethune-Cookman.

Bob Bodine

KEN CONASTER

- CINCINNATI '62
- FIRST SEASON
- CHIEF OF STAFF/SPECIAL TEAMS

Ken Conaster comes to VMI from Ohio State where he worked for head coach Jim Tressel last season.

Conaster's relationship with Tressel spanned nearly two decades including 15 years as an assistant coach under Tressel at I-AA power Youngstown State. Conaster and Coach Jim Reid coached together as assistants at Massachusetts.

While coaching on Tressel's staff at Youngstown State, Conaster served in five different capacities, including offensive coordinator, offensive line, defensive coordinator, linebackers, and assistant head coach. The Penguins during that span reached the I-AA playoffs 10 times in 15 seasons, playing in six national title games and capturing four NCAA championships. Conaster also coached the 2001 season at Ohio State under Tressel and handled special teams and defensive ends for the squad that reached the Outback Bowl.

Conaster served as an assistant coach under coach Dick MacPherson at Massachusetts and also coached the offensive line under MacPherson at Syracuse. Other assistant coaching stops included San Diego St., Kansas, and Youngstown State.

A native of Cincinnati, Ohio, Conaster played four years at the University of Cincinnati and earned a B.S. in Education in 1962 and an M.S. in Education in 1965. Conaster also was head coach at Milford (Ohio) High School from 1972 to 1977 and guided the program to four straight winning seasons after the team had not had a winning season in 18 years.

Ken Conaster

BRENT DAVIS

- GEORGIA '97
- FIRST SEASON
- OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QB

Davis will serve as the Keydets' offensive coordinator after coaching nine years at Georgia Southern as an offensive coach in the powerful run-oriented option style offense under head coaches Paul Johnson and Mike Sewak.

Davis coached the offensive line for the Eagles from 2002-2005 and his unit helped GSU to three consecutive I-AA rushing titles (386.2 ypg in 2002, 335.6 ypg in 2003, and 370 ypg in 2004). One of his players, center Charles Clarke, was awarded the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 2002 and three Eagles reached All-America status under Davis' tutelage.

Prior to taking over offensive line responsibilities, Davis coached Georgia Southern's running backs and worked with Walter Payton Award winner and Chicago Bears back Adrian Peterson in 1998 and 1999.

Davis, an Athens, Ga. native, played two seasons at The Citadel under Charlie Taafe in 1992 and 1993. As a tight end in 1992, he helped the Bulldogs to the Southern Conference Championship and a NCAA I-AA playoff appearance.

Davis transferred to Georgia his junior year where he lettered and also earned a spot on the Academic All-SEC Honor Roll in his senior year. Davis graduated from Georgia in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in business management.

Davis and his wife, Jennifer, are newlyweds, tying the knot in July.

REED HEIM

- AUSTIN COLLEGE '00
- FOURTH SEASON
- INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Heim, 29, came to VMI in May 2003 and coached defensive ends his first two years at VMI before switching to linebackers in 2005.

This season he will work primarily with the inside linebackers. He previously coached at Louisiana College in Pineville, La. where he coached linebackers in a multiple 4-3 scheme.

Heim also coached collegiately at his alma mater of Austin College in Sherman, Texas in 2001 and handled inside linebackers and coached the punt team.

Heim's football experience includes stints as a player and coach in Europe. He played and coached on two club teams in Europe and played middle linebacker and fullback for the Vienna Rangers in Vienna, Austria in the summer of 2001. Heim also played for the SHA Unicorns in Schwaebisch Hall, Germany and coordinated the defense while coaching special teams.

A four-year letterwinner at Austin College, Heim graduated in May 2000 with a degree in Business Administration and captained the 2000 Austin College team. He was a three-time All-Conference ASC player at Austin College.

Reed Heim

RICHARD McNUTT

- OHIO STATE '04
- FIRST SEASON
- DEFENSIVE BACKS

McNutt will coach the Keydet defensive backs in his first season. He comes to VMI after two seasons at Washington & Jefferson College in Washington, Pa. where he was the secondary coach.

During his two-year stint at Washington & Jefferson, the football team went 21-3 and advanced to the 3rd round of Division III playoffs in 2004 and another playoff berth in 2005. Under his tutelage, Washington & Jefferson ranked second in interceptions in Division III with 26 in 2004.

A 2004 graduate of Ohio State University, McNutt played three years at cornerback for the Buckeyes. He played in all 24 games during his first two years and made two starts as a sophomore.

McNutt played the first six games of Ohio State's 2002 national championship season, but was forced to end his playing career due to an injury. He served as a student coach during each of his last two seasons.

A native of Park Forest, Ill., McNutt ranked as one of the top five high school prospects at cornerback by numerous publications. He had 14 interceptions as a high school junior. McNutt earned a Bachelors of Arts degree from Ohio State in 2004.

Richard McNutt

BROCK PITTMAN

- EAST TENNESSEE STATE '04
- FIRST SEASON
- WIDE RECEIVERS

Brock Pittman moves to his second state school in as many years as he joins the staff of Jim Reid at VMI after serving at the University of Richmond last year.

Pittman joined the football office at UR in July, 2005, and was the assistant director of football operations for the Spiders and assisted with the defensive unit, as well as scouting, film analysis, and summer camps.

Pittman is no stranger to VMI football and competed in 2002 against the Keydets as an offensive guard for East Tennessee State. He transferred to ETSU from Scottsdale (Ariz.) Junior College where he earned first team all-conference and all-region accolades. Pittman graduated from East Tennessee State in 2004 with a B.S. in Sports Management.

A native of Mechanicsville, Va., Pittman was an all-state, all-metro, and all-region lineman at Lee-Davis High School and played one year at defensive end at Fork Union Military Academy.

VINCE SINAGRA

- RHODE ISLAND '75
- FIRST SEASON
- DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/DL

Vince Sinagra assumes defensive coordinator responsibilities after serving in the same capacity at Stony Brook University the past two years. Sinagra brings a wealth of experience to VMI including a total of 14 years at I-AA programs Stony Brook, Holy Cross, Hofstra, and Fordham.

Prior to his tenure at Stony Brook, Sinagra spent five seasons at Holy Cross (1999-2004) where he was linebackers coach and special teams coordinator. While at Holy Cross, Sinagra was responsible for game and practice planning as well as recruiting.

Sinagra also had two stints at Hofstra University serving as the Pride defensive coordinator and linebackers coach during the 1998 season. Sinagra had earlier coached the Hofstra wide receivers during the 1993 season.

From 1994 to 1998, Sinagra coached as an assistant at Fordham where he was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. Sinagra also served as defensive coordinator and defensive line coach for Bloomsburg (Pa.) University from 1986-1992 and also worked as an academic advisor and headed the summer football camp.

Sinagra graduated from the University of Rhode Island in 1975, receiving a bachelor's degree in physical education and health before completing work on a master's degree in physical education, health and recreation from Rhode Island in 1983. Sinagra started three years at defensive tackle for URI and played professionally with the Philadelphia Bell of the World Football League and Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League.

Sinagra began his coaching career at Rhode Island coaching the defensive line in 1976-77 before moving to Milford Academy in Connecticut for nine seasons.

He and his wife, Elise, reside in Lexington.

GREG SHOCKLEY

- VIRGINIA TECH '99
- SECOND SEASON
- RUNNING BACKS

Shockley came to the Institute in March, 2005 and handled the Keydet wide receivers last year. He will work again on the offensive side of the ball this fall as running backs coach.

Shockley came to VMI from William & Mary where he coached tight ends during the Tribe's successful 2004 campaign. William & Mary posted an 11-3 mark and reached the semifinals of the I-AA playoffs before falling to eventual champion James Madison. The Tribe also won the Atlantic 10 Conference championship in 2004.

Shockley began his coaching career under Frank Beamer at Virginia Tech where he was also a player before assuming graduate assistant duties on the Hokie staff. At Tech, Shockley was an offensive assistant and worked primarily with the offensive lines and tight ends. The Hokies went to bowls each of the three seasons Shockley served on the staff.

A Blacksburg, Va. native and 1999 graduate of Virginia Tech, Shockley was a quarterback and wide receiver for the Hokie squads that won three Big East championships during his playing days, including the 1999 Sugar Bowl squad that played for the national championship. In 1999, he was awarded the John William Schneider Award, given to the Tech player who excels in athletics, scholarship, and leadership.

Shockley is married to the former Cheryl Denny, an assistant softball coach at James Madison University and the couple resides in Staunton.

PAUL SOLTIS

- YOUNGSTOWN STATE '90
- FIRST SEASON
- OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Soltis comes to VMI where he will serve as Director of Football Operations as well as outside linebackers coach.

Soltis played at Ohio State University, earning a letter as a freshman. He then transferred to Youngstown State University where he was a two-time All-American linebacker. In 1987 and 1989 he played on playoff teams, captaining the 1989 squad. In 1997, Soltis was also named the Ohio Valley Conference Defensive Player of the Year. In 1999, Soltis was inducted into Youngstown State's Sports Hall of Fame.

Soltis' name is still listed frequently in the Youngstown State record book. Currently, Soltis is second in school history for tackles in a career, with a remarkable 468 stops, which is an average of 156 tackles per season. Soltis produced those numbers in only three seasons, after transferring to YSU from Ohio State.

Following college, Soltis was signed by the Miami Dolphins. He then played for former Saints head coach and now defensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams, Jim Haslett in the World League.

He was in Law Enforcement at both the state and federal level for nine years before arriving in Lexington.

Soltis is married to the former Stacey Smallwood. They have three children, Abbey, Daniel and Alayna.
